Deer Hunt

A party composed of Messrs. Rodgeway Boyd, L. A. Boyd, Jr., Frank Perdue, Fred Harper and two sons went on a deer hunt during the Thanksgiving holidays down in a swamp near Freeport, Florida. This is the territory where the late J. M. Garrett was born and reared. Two large bucks were killed and several venison feasts were enjoyed by the hunters after their return.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Perdue served a venison dinner at their home in Plant Avenue Sunday. Those present were Mrs. W. B. Perdue, Mr. and Mrs. Dana B. Perdue, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Fleming, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Chambers of Brundidge and Mr. and Mrs. Zig Banks of Andalusia.

Has Heart Attack

George Collier, veteran mail carrier on Elba Rt. 2, suffered a heart attack while in a barber shop Monday afternoon. He was taken to his home but his condition did not improve and he was carried to an Enterprise hospital where it was found that he was suffering from a serious heart ailment.

It is reported that Mr. Collier has been in poor health for several years, but it was thought his trouble was caused from indigestion. He was reported to be resting well Wednesday and his many friends are hopeful of a speedy recovery.

Hog Prices Still Good

Despite a slight general decline in the price of hogs generally, prices at the Elba Livestock Market held steady on no. ones at $21.50 this week, while heavies, which usually sell for less than tops, brought $22.00.

Feeders and other grades sold well and there were unusually large offerings. Cattle also sold for good prices.

Birth To Funeral

Miss Bobby Jo Smith, registered nurse was called to Enterprise hospital Monday to attend her sister, Mrs. Merle Agnes Walker, who gave birth to a daughter. She had to leave shortly before time for the funeral for her grandmother, Mrs. Beck Bryan, which was held at Elba Baptist church Monday afternoon. Everything worked very smoothly at the hospital and she was able to get back in time for the funeral.

Recovering

Miss Sally Collier, who fell and fractured her ankle about two weeks ago, by slipping on a defective sidewalk, is recovering nicely at the home of her brother, George Collier, in West Elba.

Mother's Death Is Shock

Major and Mrs. D. S. Bryan, Mr. and Mrs. Baxter Bryan and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Kendrick made an extended tour through the Carolinas, Tennessee, and Georgia during the Thanksgiving holidays. A sad feature of the trip was the fact that Major Bryan's mother suddenly passed away on Friday and all efforts to locate him were in vain, and he knew nothing of her death until he returned home on Sunday.

Major Bryan attributes the failure to locate him to the exceedingly inclement weather conditions prevailing Friday and Saturday. He said that ordinarily he would have received the broadcasts which were sent out trying to locate him, but that it was some of the worst weather he has ever seen and that their car was one of the last to cross the river at West Point, Georgia, before the highway was closed to traffic because of high water. They had to detour "all over the country" to reach home.

Major Bryan said that a pathetic feature of his absence at the time of his mother's death and his friends inability to locate him was that as near as he can estimate, almost at the exact time of her death, he was buying some trinkets and little presents for her at a small store at the foot of Lookout Mountain.

Prizes Offered For Best Christmas Decorations

Outside And Inside Exhibits Eligible For $50 In Prizes

At a meeting of the Elba Lions Club last Tuesday night, it was voted to award prizes for the three outstanding outside and two inside Christmas exhibits. Prizes for outside designs will be $20, $10, and $5, and the inside prizes will be $10 and $5. Inside arrangements to be eligible for the prizes must be so arranged that they can be viewed from the street.

The purpose of the contest is to stimulate competition in the Christmas decorations with a more beautiful city as an objective.

The judging will be done by a group of Elba businessmen on Tuesday night, December 21st. Homes outside the city limits are to be included in the judging.

The outside exhibit of J. E. Plant will not be included in the contest. This beautiful exhibit is a professional job and the members of the committee felt that it would be unfair to ask other residents to enter against it in competition. This display is a credit to the city, however and people are urged to contribute to the expense of its showing in the same manner as they did last year.

State goals will be apportioned among growers. Each grower's marketing quota will be the amount of peanuts grown on his acreage allotment. Sales from acreages in excess of allotments would be subject to heavy penalties.

Brannan said prospective demands for peanuts from the 1949 crop indicated that, without marketing quotas, production would be far in excess of domestic and export requirements.

Peanut production was expanded sharply during the war to provide a source of food oils. The wartime expansion was encouraged by the government after Far Eastern sources of vegetable oils were cut off.

90 Per Cent Of Parity

The 1949 crop will be supported at 90 per cent of parity price of peanuts as of July 15, 1949. Price support aid will be limited to producers complying with the planting allotments.

Penalties of one-half the support price will be assessed against marketing in excess of established quotas.

A similar control program was announced for this year's crop but it was suspended before the planting season because the demand outlook improved.

Board Decision Favors Union In Dorsey Case

Case Is Appealed; Final Decision Next Summer

For many months the case of Dorsey Trailers vs. the CIO United Auto Workers Union has been hanging fire before the National Labor Relations Board in Washington, D. C. Finally a decision has been handed down by the trial board and the far-reaching ruling was released by the Associated Press last Sunday which was sent out under a Washington date line as follows:

"In the absence of a no-strike pledge, a labor union may by-pass grievance procedure set up in its contract and legally call a strike." The National Labor Relations Board ruled that such established procedure to handle grievances does not waive the Union's legal right to strike.

The 4-1 decision was handed down in the case involving Dorsey Trailers, Inc., Elba, Ala., trailer manufacturer, and the CIO United Auto Workers Union. The far-reaching ruling brought a sharp dissent from one board member, J. Copeland Gray. He said failure to submit a dispute in an agreed grievance procedure is an illegal breach of contract.

The case involved the period hectic company-union relationship in 1945 and 1946. In May, 1946, the company fired a worker for smoking in violation of a plant rule. The workers walked out.

Peanut Acreage To Be Curtailed Next Season

Cut Expected To Be One-Fifth Of Total Acreage

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30.—Secretary of Agriculture Brannan announced today a 1949 peanut production program calling for a reduction of 22 per cent in planted acreage.

A declining demand was given as the reason for the reduction. Next year's peanut crop will be grown and marketed under rigid government controls. These were authorized by the growers in a referendum a year ago.

The 1949 planting goal was set at 2,611,367 acres planted this year.

Brannan said the national planting goal should produce a crop of about 850,000 tons. This goal will be divided up among the peanut producing states.

To Be Apportioned

State goals will be apportioned among growers. Each grower's marketing quota will be the amount of peanuts grown on his acreage allotment. Sales from acreages in excess of allotments would be subject to heavy penalties.

Brannan said prospective demands for peanuts from the 1949 crop indicated that, without marketing quotas, production would be far in excess of domestic and export requirements.

Mrs. Sara Ella Bryan Dies Suddenly At Home Of Maj. Bryan

Heart Attack Cause Of Death Of Well Known Resident

Mrs. Sara Ella Bryan, highly esteemed and dearly beloved Elba resident died suddenly Friday afternoon, November 26 at the home of her son, Major Dorsey S. Bryan, from a heart attack. Mrs. Bryan had been staying with her daughter, Mrs. Holland Harrison during the absence of Major and Mrs. Bryan, who were on a tour in the Carolinas, Tennessee and Georgia. She ordered a taxi to go to her home with the understanding that the taxi would pick up her sister, Mrs. Fannie Sellers at the Clifford Cook Store. The driver failed to stop at the store and took Mrs. Bryan on home, where she went into the house.

The taxi returned to the store for Mrs. Sellers, who upon entering the Bryan home, found Mrs. Bryan sitting lifeless in a chair with her head thrown back on the headrest. She had some little things in her hands, indicating that she must have passed away peacefully within a few moments after seating herself in the chair.

Mrs. Sellers called Dr. W. R. Crook, who lives nearby and when he and Mrs. Crook arrived Dr. Crook pronounced Mrs. Bryan dead. Dr. and Mrs. Crook said they noticed Mrs. Bryan enter the house and it could have been only a few minutes later that she passed away.

A sad feature of Mrs. Bryan's death was the fact that her son, Major Bryan was away from home and all efforts to locate him were futile, although the news was broadcast extensively over the radio. The first he knew of his mother's death was when he arrived home Sunday.

Mrs. Bryan was born in Pike County, but had made her home with Major and Mrs. Bryan for several years and had many friends in this community. She was 78 years of age.

She is survived by her son, Major D. S. Bryan; two daughters, Mrs. Lu Anna Smith and Mrs. Pearl Harrison; four sisters, Mrs. Epsie Turman, Mrs. Elvira Cook, Mrs. Appella Mills and Mrs. Fannie Sellers.

Funeral services were held on Monday, November 29th at the Bryan home conducted by Elder Richards. Minister J. C. Dixon, and Rev. O. M. Fox.

Palbearers were C. N. Cook, G. J. Bryan, Robert Beck, J. D. Beck, Albert Beck, and Hollis Cook. Interment was in Evergreen cemetery with Hayes Funeral Home in charge.

Elba Tigers Win From Samson By 12 To 6 Margin

Season Ends With Third Victory; Seven Defeats

The Elba Tigers brought 1948 season to a close Wednesday night by putting one of their best performances to defeat a strong Samson team by the score of 12 to 6. The Tigers got off to an early start by taking the initial kickoff and driving over for a score before losing possession of the ball. Samson came back strong in the second half to tie the score at six all, but Elba put the game on ice with another six pointer in the fourth period. Elba won the toss and elected to receive. Lamar Jacobs took the kick on the Elba 27 yard line and returned it to the mid-field strip. Farris picked up 12 yards and a first down on the Samson 38. Conner ran for seven and Farris made another first down on the Samson 23. Farris then picked up 18 yards and was tackled on the Samson five. An off-side penalty gave Elba a first down on the Samson one yard line. A fumble on the first play was recovered by Elba but the play lost a yard. Bullard attempted to run right end but was thrown for a six yard loss. Farris made three yards at right tackle making it fourth down on the four yard line. From there Lamar Jacobs went over for the score.

Early in the second quarter Nalls blocked a punt on the Samson 42 but the Tigers lost the ball on a fumble. Johnson then blocked a punt on the Samson 49. Elba carried to the Samson 20 but a fumble by Bullard ended the scoring threat.

On the next play Jacobs intercepted a pass on the 34 and returned to the 28. Farris picked up six yards and Bullard passed incomplete to Johnson in the end zone as the half ended with Elba leading 6 to 0.

Owens received the kickoff in the second half on the Samson 20 and returned it 25 yards. In six plays Samson moved the ball to the Elba 13 from where a roughing penalty gave them a first down on the Elba one yard line. Owens scored on the first play. The kick for extra point was blocked and the score was tied.

Early in the fourth quarter Ben Johnson took the ball on the Elba 32 on an end around and went 67 yards to the one-yard line before being pushed out of bounds. Conner scored around left end. Jacobs try for extra point failed.

Elba threatened again in the closing minutes of the game.

Basketball Team Being Formed By Independents

Prospects Good For Winning Team Among Locals

For English informs the Clipper that an independent basketball team is being organized in Elba. He has ordered 10 uniforms and an organization meeting is to be called in the near future.

Mr. English, one of Elba's most enthusiastic and best informed sports fans and promoters, says that there is an abundance of local material from which to form a winning basketball team—one that should really "go places". It is planned to schedule games in connection with some of the high school games—probably playing as many as three games per week. It is thought that a strong independent team will stimulate interest in the game and will not interfere with the high school schedule.

A more detailed announcement will be published as soon as it is available.

A fire at Windham Lumber Co. sawmill early Thursday morning did only slight damage, due to the prompt and efficient service of the Elba Fire Department.

FLEMING-SAWYER WEDDING
The marriage of Miss Eric Maxine Fleming, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Sawyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Sawyer of New Brockton, was solemnized on Sunday morning, November 21st, at 8:30 o'clock in the First Methodist church with Rev. W. S. Guice performing the impressive double ring ceremony in the presence of relatives and close friends of the couple.

Decorations within the church were confined to the altar where white camellias and gypsophylla in dainty crystal bowls were placed by the bride.

A program of nuptial music was given by Mrs. Park Jones, pianist, and Miss Ann Fleming, vocalist, a cousin of the bride.

Mrs. Jones played "Claire De Lune" by Debussy. Miss Fleming sang "Because" by Fardol. Traditional wedding marches for professional and recessional were used.

Mr. and Mrs. Fleming entered with her brother, Grover Cleveland (Sonny) Fleming, by whom she was given in marriage.

Adolph Sawyer served his brother as best man.

For her wedding the bride wore a street length gown of winter white with gold and rhinestone trim, a light blue ostrich plume hat and long white gloves. She carried a white leather hand bag, topped with a single yellow thorned orchid and showered with ribbons.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Fleming chose a peach-colored crepe dress and wore a shoulder corsage of white camellias.

Mrs. Sawyer, mother of the groom, wore a brown and white chrysanthemum corsage and a shoulder corsage of white camellias.

Story of Revolution

Lesson for December 5, 1948

THE MOST important history in the world is in one small book. The most important movement, the most revolutionary, the one that is destined to change the world more than any other, is the Christian church. The story of how it began is in the book of Acts. No other book in or out of the New Testament tells the story. The history of the beginning of the one and only international, interracial, world-wide movement that sets out to aim at nothing less than a complete transformation of mankind, the Revolution from Within, the Christian Church.

What the Church Is
THERE are hundreds of churches today and they do not all agree. But every church, whatever its name or peculiarities, aims to stay on the course marked out by the Christian church when it was one and undivided, the church of the Apostles. We look back to the story in Acts to see what the true church is.

In the very beginning, the church was not the place where the Christians met for worship. It was not the officers. The Apostles themselves were not the church. The church was not a thing at all; it was people.

In Acts these people are seldom called Christians and never called churchmen or church-members. They are given more meaningful names. They are called "disciples," that is, learners, students. They are called "believers." They are called "brothers" for their life was like that of a family. They are called the people of "the Way"—travelers together to the same destination. The church, in short, is a fellowship, the family of the Friends of Christ.

How the Church Began
THE infant church was like all human babies; it began small and poor. No bystander would have expected it to live; but it had life in its heart. Two forces set that church on its way. One was the command of Christ.

The people who were in it, or rather the people who were the church, took their orders from Christ. It was because of him that they went out to bear witness to him to the "uttermost parts of the earth."

Then the people were filled with the Holy Spirit; they were guided constantly by the Spirit. The book of Acts has often been called the "Acts of the Holy Spirit" rather than of the Apostles.

Leaders
GOD never does for people what they can do for themselves. So guidance of the Spirit was never a substitute for human leadership. A true church is not a mob; it acts, as the New Testament church did, in an orderly fashion.

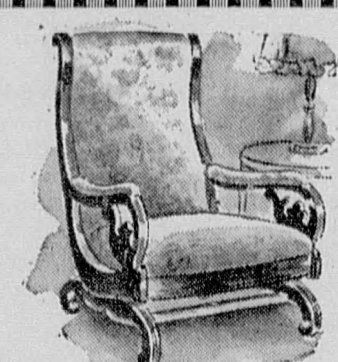

One of the church's first problems was that of finding leaders. The history in Acts is largely the history of certain leaders—John, Peter, Paul. But these were not alone. Not even the Apostles tried to run the church like a dictatorship. The people themselves chose the officers who were ordained by the Apostles.

What the Church Does
FIVE things the Apostolic church did, and these mark any true church today. They "continued in the Apostles' teachings;" the beginning of all our church schools and Sunday schools is in that brief phrase. They formed a fellowship; the church then was not a list of names of people who cared little for one another; it was a true family.

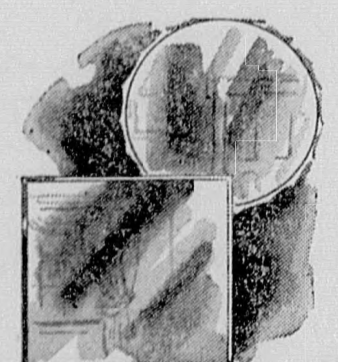

They observed the sacraments; they and their households were baptized, and they continued "in the breaking of the bread." Baptism and the Lord's Supper have always been observed in some form in every Christian church. They "continued in prayer;" a church in which only the minister prays is a feeble affair.

Above all, they were "witnesses." That is to say, they told the story of Jesus—his life, his teachings, his death, his resurrection. Jesus lived! Jesus is Lord! So the Apostles preached, from Jerusalem to Rome and far beyond. But their preaching would have been mere shouting in the wind, if Christ had not lived again in thousands of everyday Christians.

YOUR Health

"Your Health" is presented by your physician as a health service of the Medical Association of the State of Alabama.

ATHLETE'S FOOT
Though some people think of athlete's foot as a summer ailment, it actually continues the year round. Ringworm of the feet is the way doctors speak of it, and it is carried by human beings in places where they walk barefoot, such as showers baths and gymnasiums.

Athlete's foot is a fungus disease, and the fungus which causes it, thrives in the atmosphere found in shoes. This atmosphere is one of stale air which is warm and damp. A mild case will take the form of a few cracks in the skin between the toes, but it can be a severe case with raw skin, blisters and pus.

Under proper treatment, athlete's foot can be cleared up very easily. The greatest trouble is that when a case is taken to a doctor it is usually in the severe stage of development and has usually been irritated by one home remedy after another.

Only the mild cases should be treated at home. When there is much redness, moisture or pain, see your doctor. Hygiene, health magazine of the American Medical Association, says to treat the mild case by dusting between the toes with a 10 per cent boric acid in powdered talc.

Prevention of athlete's foot is easy and prevention is what we should try to get. Keep the feet clean and dry, especially between the toes. Air shoes and socks when not wearing them. Select shoes that are light and as well ventilated as possible, and night and morning dust with ten per cent boric acid powder.

If, however, a case of athlete's foot is picked up and treatment with boric acid does not cure it, go to your doctor after 2 weeks. Thus he will be able to treat the disease before it goes too far.

A good use for old powder puff is to use them for scouring pads for cooking utensils.

SPRAY FOR SCALE

Peach, plum, apple and pear trees should be sprayed for scale between the time the leaves fall and growth starts in the spring. Use an oil emulsion spray containing 60 per cent oil. It is highly satisfactory for apples and pears. If peach trees have leaf-curl, it is better to spray them with lime-sulphur solution to keep pecans or other nuts suspended in cakes, cut the nuts very fine and add them to the batter last.

SHORT STORY

That Old Mr. Crane
By ANNA E. WILSON

OLD MR. CRANE sat in a padded armchair before the fire in his room. The pipe and tobacco on the table beside him went untouched. Old Mrs. Crane had given him one pipe and tobacco, the armchair and the basement room. In return he tended the furnace and sometimes swept the floor.
Old Mr. Crane began to think about himself as he'd have liked to have been. He might dream that he'd had a fine father and mother, maybe a doctor and a teacher. Someone whose money came in regular and who'd have seen that he got educated; who could have found what he was suited to and maybe given him a start. He'd have married, well, someone like Alda Rich, who used to ride her bicycle past his father's house and who sometimes stopped to speak to him. Alda was Mr. Rich's daughter and spoke to everybody. A nice girl, not stuck-up or proud.
The children would have been like Alda, too. Two boys and two girls. He'd have called the elder girl Alda and the boys for himself, Milton Crane, Jr. People would have written it that way on letters. He'd seen it that way when he'd carried in the mail for old Dr. Rich that summer when he moved down for his keep. Dr. Rich had given him many a stray quarter on the side.

3-Minute Fiction
The children would have been like Alda, too. Two boys and two girls. He'd have called the elder girl Alda and the boys for himself, Milton Crane, Jr. People would have written it that way on letters. He'd seen it that way when he'd carried in the mail for old Dr. Rich that summer when he moved down for his keep. Dr. Rich had given him many a stray quarter on the side.

"Seems as if such a rich country should be able to give you a better home, son. Young as he was, he felt something both sorrowful and glad in his father's voice and said, 'After Alda, the smallest, got pneumonia and died, their father had failed. He and Sam had cut school and went to work, he'd sold into the grocery business. But he'd drifted from job to job. Sam put in words, 'It's not that you don't mean right or that you're lazy, but it seems like you have got to be moving.' Sam had always been good to him just the same as he had been good to Dad. Sam was dead now. He'd felt bad when Sam died."

He'd moved around just as Sam said, and when he was young and strong, he'd managed pretty well, harvesting, lumbering, sailing once on a boat. It's a life that's hard on a man, having no proper comforts. Once Sam had come out to visit.

Seemed the girls got tired of him and looked to staidier men.

him. "You're getting no younger. Maybe you should think of marrying and settling down."

IN THE end, he'd had to help out Sam. It hadn't been much he'd had to give Sam when Sam died, but until Sam's boy grew up, he'd stayed at that elevator and worked hard. Sally'd asked him to come and live with them, but Sally had a nice house and, after knocking around all over, a man gets kind of rough. It wouldn't have been fitting, and he'd always tried to do what was fitting.

It was in the hospital that Mrs. Crane found him. She'd given him the room and the chair and yesterday she'd given him the tobacco and the pipe, although the furnace was black out.

"Never mind the furnace," she'd said, "I'll get someone to look after that—just rest."

She knew. She was his kind. They must have told her that he hadn't long to go. It was nice here, dreaming of Alda by the fire, and maybe, a kid or two, though he'd known well, it wasn't fitting for him to be looking at Alda Rich after her father died.

He must have fallen asleep and been talking again for old Mrs. Crane, who had let old Alda Rich, who was holding a glass when she spoke.
"Drink this, Milt, you've just been having a bad dream."
